

The background is a dense, overlapping collage of various colored paper scraps and sticky notes. The colors include shades of pink, orange, yellow, green, blue, and grey. Some of the sticky notes have a speech bubble shape, while others are rectangular. The overall effect is a busy, layered, and colorful composition.

Two-time Grammy Award winner Macy Gray will return to the Jazz Festival after stunning last year's audience during her incredible Saskatchewan debut. The R&B and soul artist, famed for her distinctive raspy voice and a singing style influenced by Billy Holiday and Betty Davis, was actually born Natalie McIntyre in Canton, Ohio, and grew up a shy, awkward youngster who was frequently teased about her odd-sounding voice. She studied classical piano for seven years, but also soaked up the music of soul legends like Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye, and Aretha Franklin, not to mention old-school hip hop and rock n' roll, all of which are reflected in her energetic live performances.

BLUE KING BROWN: Australia's premier eight-piece live urban roots crew, Blue King Brown is led by the multit talented, relentless energy of Natalie Pa'apa'a. Her powerful vocal and lyrical delivery meets a mash-up of dancehall, roots, rock and afro groove sounds built on an irrepressible percussive foundation. Blue King Brown has gained critical acclaim, fans and a reputation as one of the best live bands to see leaving you sweaty and breathless.

For every young guitar player growing up in a small town, the story of Saskatchewan-born Colin James is their story - one of drive, passion, ambition and a strong sense that their destiny lay beyond the safe confines of home. Looking back on a career that now spans two decades, Colin has walked through more than just a few doors to reach the level of success that he enjoys today. Having shared the stage with arguably the greatest and most influential guitarists of all time, he continues to record the music that he loves, has sold multi-platinum many times over, and his concert tours continue to sell out coast to coast.

TROMBONE SHORTY & ORLEANS AVENUE: Rare indeed is the artist with the virtuosity to draw the unqualified respect of some of the most iconic legends in jazz and the ability to deliver a high-energy funk rock show capable of mesmerizing international rock stars. Troy "Trombone Shorty" Andrews is one such artist - and there is no one else like him. A product of New Orleans' culturally rich Tremé neighborhood, Trombone Shorty is equally adept on trombone and trumpet and is a man to be reckoned with on both.

BC READ BIG BAND & FRIENDS: To help celebrate the silver anniversary of the SaskTel Saskatchewan Jazz Festival, local bluesman B.C. Read has put together an all-star band featuring Suzie Vinnick and Big Dave McLean to perform selections from his past three albums and music from his latest release.

TURBO GETS A BLAST OF THUNDER!

By far, this is one of the most impressive game that we have ever seen for the TurboGrafx CD. This disc will be one of the first pieces of software for the new Turbo Duo. It will also work with the older Turbo CD-ROM with the new 3.0 Super System Card. The game play is non-stop and the music quality is spectacular. The end bosses in this game are truly amazing. They fill the entire screen and attack in an extremely aggressive style. Plenty of firepower and reversible option techniques help make this is one game that shows the Turbo still has the potential to bring the arcade experience home!

GATE OF THUNDER

TREMENDOUS FIRE POWER AT YOUR DISPOSAL!

BLOW THE ENEMY AWAY WITH YOUR OPTIONS!

SPECIAL SUPER TURBO CD PREVIEW!

STAGE ONE

Here, you are introduced to the largest enemy ship ever seen on the Turbo! Yes it is even larger than the third level boss of R-type! Destroy as much of this battle cruiser as you can and go against the deadly end Boss that emerges.

BOSS ONE

STAGE TWO

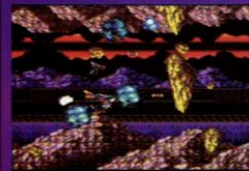

Fly through the defense fortress blasting away missiles and laser cannons on the floors and ceilings. Watch out for the walls that will try to smash you from the background. The Boss fires a heat seeking laser as well as huge rings of plasma.

BOSS TWO

BOSS THREE

STAGE THREE

This level is filled with large rocks and other hazards. The mountains will close in and try to crush you. You will invade a mining structure where huge flares of lava will threaten your existence. Use Earthquake to get rid of this pesky end Boss.

STAGE FOUR

This is the most heavily armored level yet! The best weapon is the full power wave. It will let you destroy an enemy on the top and bottom. The Boss is extremely tough. Destroy its head and he splits apart. Now, you have to blast two parts at once!

STAGE FIVE

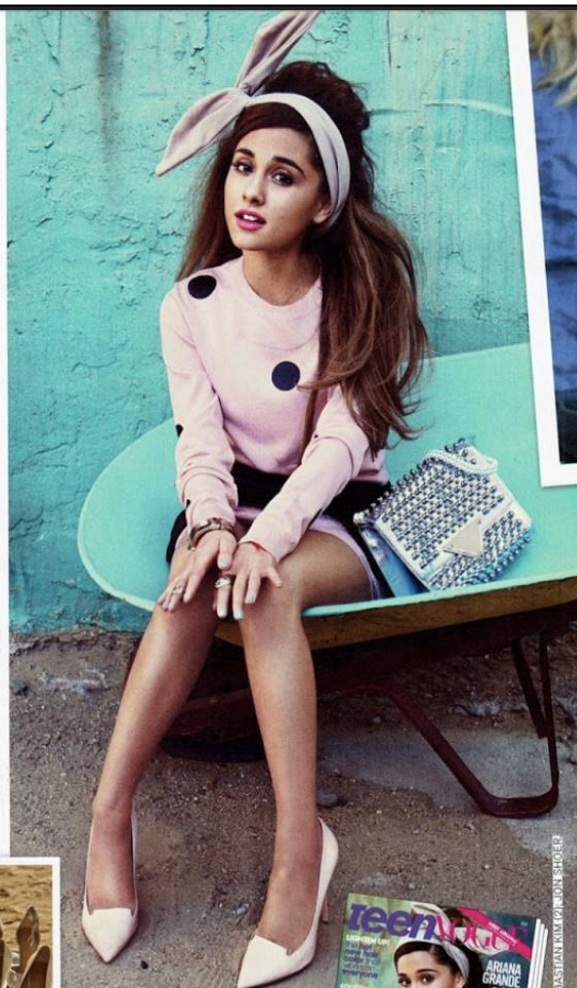

This is the most graphically intense level in the game. Giant sandworms attack from the ground while you are confronted by a large armada of enemy ships. Dive into an underground river and blow a hole through the hideous Boss.

Cover Look

Get the inside scoop on Teen Vogue's cover shoot with Ariana Grande.

While it may look as if we took a trip to a dusty desert for Ariana Grande's very first Teen Vogue cover, we were actually 40 minutes outside Hollywood at the famed Veluzat Motion Picture Ranch in Santa Clarita, California. A location for hundreds of films, TV shows, and music videos, the set—decked out by the Teen Vogue team with silver palm trees and neon-painted tires—was the perfect backdrop for Ariana's chic-meets-Southwest shoot. The special "prop" that completed the fantasy? A veiled chameleon named Camo, whose species is native to Yemen and Saudi Arabia. Ariana was completely fearless about posing with Camo for photographer Sebastian Kim and seemed to love every minute. "I am thrilled to be on the cover of Teen Vogue because I grew up reading it," the songstress said. "I was extra excited when I heard it was the February cover because I knew I was going to wear a lot of pink—for Valentine's Day!" As the sun started to set, the light was perfect and so was the mood: Ariana smiled as she sang along to her favorite tunes (see her playlist, at right) in her signature high notes. Nothing stops a beauty and her beat.

Like most celebrities, Ariana has her signature look down pat. But for Teen Vogue, the singer was game to do some beauty experimentation. Hair whiz Teddy Charles transformed Ariana's princess curls into a kittenish sixties style inspired by Brigitte Bardot. "There was a lot of back-combing!" Teddy says of the voluminous look. But the real fun began in the makeup tent, where Madonna's greatest hits played full blast. Perhaps it was the Material Girl who inspired beauty pro Tyron Machhausen to reach for an audacious pink lip color. "Ariana was skeptical at first," he admits, "so I let her put it on herself. She liked it instantly!" To complement her bold lip, Tyron kept the rest of her makeup clean, skipping liner altogether in place of a few generous coats of mascara on her top and bottom lashes. Lastly, stylist Michelle Cameron rushed in with a hair bow, tying the girly look together. Says Teddy: "That was the finishing touch—and Ariana adored it."

In the end, the star was beautiful enough to woo her on-set crush. "She fell in love with Camo. She kept calling him her boyfriend!" Tyron says. Lucky guy! □
